Dear Mr. Robinson:

I am indeed grateful for your letter which I just received in this mornings mail.

Five-thousand words is preferable, however, if you find it necessary to use more it is perfectly all right.

The book "What Price Peace" is composed of fifteen chapters. They are as follows:

- I. Peace and War
by RBK
- II. As American Citizens
by Franklin Delano Roosevelt
(President Roosevelt sent me two of his speeches on Peace that should be used to constitute his chapter.)
- III. Historical Background
by David Saville Muzzey
(I have not yet received a reply from him but I am confident that he will accept.)
- IV. War In The Scriptures
by RBK
- V. The Effects of the World War
by Edwin W. Pahlow
- VI. Peace In India
by Dr. Sam Van Hoff
(I have not as yet received his reply.)
- VII. Peace In Africa
by Dr. Tinsley Smith
(No reply as yet.)
- VIII. Peace In South America
by Rev. George W. Jackson
(No reply as yet.)

- IX. Peace In China
by Rev. Hugh W. White
- X. Peace In Europe
by Arthur Brisbane (Received copy just before his death.)
- XI. Christ's Standard For Peace
by Stewart M. Robinson
- XII. War...Unless
by Sisley Huddleston
(No reply.)
- XIII. A Plan For Peace
by A. A. Milne
- XIV. The Price of Peace
by E. Guy Talbot
- XV. Facing The Future.
by RBK

I have also written to every ruler in every country in the world asking for a letter on peace. These letters will also be published.

Thank you so much for accepting my offer and I am confident that this book will be a success for we are upholding the name of Jesus Christ throughout. May His blessings follow you in all that you do and may THE PRESBYTERIAN continue to prosper under your leadership as it has in the past.

Very truly yours,

R. B. Knudsen

Dear Mr. Robinson,

You will remember of accepting my offer, in your letter of January 21, 1937, to write a chapter entitled "Christ's Standard For Peace" for our forth coming book--"What Price Peace."

Since this is June 1, I hope that I may receive your manuscript shortly that publication shall not be delayed.

May God bless you abundantly,

Sincerely yours,

R. B. Knudsen

Dear Mr. Robinson:

At the present time I am editing a book entitled "What Price Peace" which I am dividing up into fifteen chapters. Each of these fifteen chapters are written by a different writer whom I feel is capable and acquainted with the circumstances to write on such a subject. On the enclosed sheet you will find a list of the writers that are contributing to this book.

Dr. Whallon, who is a honorary Editor of your wonderful paper which I read from week to week, was to write chapter eleven which is entitled "Christ's Standard for Peace." because of his pressing work and not having good health he has asked to be excused from the small task and he has so kindly referred you to me.

The whole purpose of the book is to promote Jesus Christ and His Standards for Peace. I am confident that you are able to write such a chapter as I have requested and I hope and pray that you will be able to do such. The chapter does not need to be very long but the manuscript must be in to me by June of this year.

I trust that you will consider my proposition which gives to you one-twelfth of the profits gained from this book. If you are unable to do it for any reason please notify me at once. However, if you do accept the proposition I would like to have a letter of acceptance in order to make the necessary arrangements.

May God bless you as you continue to do your wonderful work in the Presbyterian and may

He help you to do that which He would have you to do.

I hope and pray for a very succesful year during 1937 in which your work will prosper and carry forth the story of Jesus and His Love.

Yours very truly,

R. B. Knudsen

Dear Dr. Robinson:

Thank you for your letter which I received but a few moments ago. The chapters which have thusfar been handed in are:

"PEACE IN EUROPE"

by Arthur Brisbane

(This chapter was one of the last mss. written before his death.)

"The Price of Peace"

by E. Guy Talbott

"As American Citizens"

by President Franklin D. Roosevelt

I have also received a large amount of literature from the du Pont Munitions firm, some of which I will use in the publication.

Other chapters which have not as yet been received, aside from your own, are:

"Peace In China"

by Rev. Hugh W. White

"The Effects of the World War."

I have run into a little difficulty in regards to this chapter, but this difficulty will no doubt disappear through prayer to Jesus Christ our Lord. Edwin W. Pahlow had pledged himself to the writing of this chapter, but because of his dear wife passing to Glory, he requested that he be excused and someone else undertake the task. I have since written to W. Langer of Harvard University. I have not yet received his reply, but it is due at any time.

The rest of the book, including a survey of the economic position of each of the seventy-two countries of the world and their tensions,

RAYMOND BARNETT KNUDSEN

will be written by yours truly. I shall also write Chapter One on "Peace and War" and the last chapter, Chapter Seven" on "Facing the Future" in which I shall promote the prophecies given us by our Saviour that we are yet to follow the dispensations of:

The great tribulation and the last war,
the battle of Armageddon.
The Millinnium
Eternity.

As you know. This book cannot obtain peace for the world, but it can promote the thinking of individuals that the only way to peace and economic prosperity, is through faith on the Lord Jesus Christ.

I cannot, at present, state when the book will be published. I expect to send the mss. to several publishers for Estimates and Remarks during the latter part of August of this year. Publication should then be made around February 1, 1938.

Thank you so much for your interest in promoting this book, which we hope and pray will promote Christianity, as we Presbyterians believe, to the inth degree.

May God bless you, and guide you that all work may be pleasing and acceptable in the sight of Him who loved us and gave Himself for us.

Sincerely yours,

R. B. Knudsen
